Mr. Powers will fill his pulpit in Covington and remain there during the week in order to attend the convocation of Covington.

THE reading by Mrs. Ross at the court house, Friday evening, was well-attended, the audience being composed of the most cultured people of the city. The selections were all good and were rendered in Mrs. Ross' best style. The recitations by Miss Rosa Anderson, a miss of twelve years, were very fine and evidenced that she is a talented little lady. The music by Mrs. Nolin and Mr. Mathews was also an enjoyable feature of the entertainment.

Rice-Sachs.

The marriage of Miss Sophia Sachs, of this city, to Mr. Jacob Rice, of Middletown, Ohio, was solemnized at the residence of Mr. Hermann Lange, the bride's brother-in-law, on Wednesday evening the 12th inst., by Dr. R. B. Wise, of Cincinnati. All the guests present were from a distance and were relatives of the family. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, and the wedding gifts numerous and costly. A sumptuous supper was served after the ceremony, followed by music and dancing. The happy couple left the same evening for Middletown, Ohio, attended by the best wishes of all their friends.

The National Genuine Export Lager forms a very pleasant and favorable substitute for ordinary drinking water, so frequently contaminated and unwholesome. Lovers of a good glass of old lager will do well to give the following parties a call: Fred. Otto, Simons & McMurtry, George M. Thompson, F. Schatzmann, Robert Wileet and Ed. Lambden. a145td.

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Judge M. F. Wilson, late Police Judge of Cincinnati, was in Maysville Friday, to appear as counsel for Frank Day, in his trial for house-breaking, in the circuit court.

THE Manchester, Ohio, Signal says: "Carrie, a young daughter of John Garret, aged about thirteen years, met with a fearful accident on Wednesday afternoon. Her clothing caught fire, while she was assisting in house cleaning, and before the fire could be extinguished, she was burned in a terrible manner, all over her limbs and body. She lies in a very dangerous condition, yet it is hoped by the attending physician that she may recover.

THE Yoeman copies Mr. W. D. Hixson's article on the subject of blue grass, with the following remarks:

Mr. W. D. Hixson, of Mason, one of the best informed gentlemen on Kentucky's early history, gives in a paper to the Mason Historical Society, which we reproduce elsewhere, the fullest account of the origin of blue grass we have yet seen.

THE following is from the Bourbon News:

The Rev. H. M. Seudder, of Fleming county, has returned from Pine Bluff, Ark., where he has been assisting Rev. J. A. Dickson in conducting a protracted meeting. There were thirty-three persons added to the Presbyterian Church, and a few converts were made who will go to other churches. The series of meetings were conducted so successfully that a neighboring church was called into requisition so as to accommodate the crowd.

A CURIOSITY in the form of a mule colt that was born with only two legs, was on exhibition Friday afternoon, at Thomas Jackson's livery stable. It was foaled Thursday night at the farm of Mr. James Key, on the Hills City Turnpike. On the right where the fore leg should be, there is an appendage, a foot long probably, that is provided with a hoof, and on the left side no appearance whatever of a limb. The animal seems to be in good health, and likely to live. It was bought for five dollars by John Ryan, of Cincinnati, and was taken there to be exhibited at his establishment on Fifth street. The owner was glad to get rid of the monstrosity.

It is estimated that $20,000,000 worth of property—chiefly public buildings and school property—is exempted from taxation in Kentucky. Twenty-five counties failed to make returns. As to the remainder the chief items stand as follows:
